

TeachMeet Flexible Learning Presentation Details

Presenter Details	Session Title	Session Overview
Gabrielle Trinca Twitter: @GabrielleTrinca Email: mrstrinca@gmail.com Insta: @gabrielletrincaedu Web: www.gabrielletrinca.com	Flexible Learning	Overview of what flexible learning is and what needs to be taken into consideration in regards to learning space setup.
Clare Thomson @MissClareTomo thomson.clare@cathednet.wa.edu.au	Catering for Diverse Learners in an ECE Contemporary Classroom	Providing developmentally appropriate activities and investigations for students that align with the Australian curriculum in an Early Childhood classroom. Hands on resources and experiences which allow for students to move and learn in different ways and at different levels without the restrictions of assigned seating.
Melissa Myles @mylesmelissa2 myles.melissa@cathednet.wa.edu.au Claire Dernie @dernieclaire dernie.claire@cathednet.wa.edu.au	Spaces and choice in a Flexible Environment.	A modern classroom must cater to all learners. Discover how we establish spaces, expectations and allow the children to decide how they learn in their classroom.
Jarryd Evans-Munro jarryd.evans@hotmail.com	A Preservice Teacher's Experience With Flexible Learning	My experience with Flexible learning on final prac and planning for my year 5 classroom this year.
Belinda Russell Hawker Park Primary www.mrsrussellsclassroom.com FB @disruptiveinnovationineducation Belinda.Russell@education.wa.edu.au	Pedagogy and the Flexible Learning Environment	Exploring the pedagogical shift required for successful implementation of a flexible learning environment.

Rebecca Lewis Becklewis74@gmail.com	Flexible Learning Environment: A Pedagogical Change	The why for change - shifting the mindset and reviewing teaching practice and student learning.
Bhavneet Singh @bhavneetsingh12 Bhavraz@gmail.com bhavsingh.com	Maker Spaces	Following the trend of strategically planning for a makers space in primary.
Aly Mebb alycebudz@hotmail.com	Helping kids learn through their environment	Sick of saying “sit on your chair properly!”? Maybe your students need something different to learn? Explore flexible learning spaces through the eyes of children.
Tabitha Steel & Vanessa Young tabitha.steel@education.wa.edu.au Vanessa.young@education.wa.edu.au	How to get started.	Hear from two upper primary teachers who started the flexible learning journey one year ago. The where and how to start, why you should start your journey and how to address those difficult questions from parents and faculty.
Alexandra Myer Twitter: @alexmyer Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/mismyer/ Website: www.alexmyer.com Alexandra.myer@ashdalesc.wa.edu.au	Middle School Maker Space	A walk through the setup of a maker space and see example student projects. Attendees will receive a summary sheet of resources and equipment as well as a list of OSH concerns.
Leanne Winter, Vanessa Killen Kirkham, Brette Lockyer All Saints’ College Junior School and Senior School Lwinter1967@gmail.com Vanessa.kirkham@allsaints.wa.edu.au Brette.lockyer@allsaints.wa.edu.au	Our Experiences – Purpose Built Buildings / Classrooms and Not ...	Recently having the privilege of purpose built classrooms that incorporate flexible learning spaces – what we use these spaces for, what’s stopping you and how we currently implement flexible learning utilising yet to be refurbished out of date classrooms. The future at All Saints’ College.

@brettelockyer @vanessakirkham @leason2802
---	--	--